

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL

PRESIDENT'S SCHOLARSHIP

In the spirit of St. Ignatius, St. John's College strive to keep a Jesuit education affordable and accessible. In addition to supporting a subsidized tuition model and controlling cost inflation for families, St. John's College High School provides significant need-based financial aid.

St. John's College High School's President's Scholarship is a renewable award for exemplary students in different areas, spiritually, intellectually, morally, and more. This competitive scholarship can cover up to the full cost of tuition and fees.

This scholarship was designed to offer a Jesuit education & leadership opportunities to set the world on fire through faith & service. The President's scholarship awards are renewable each year and contingent upon a student's excellent citizenship, academic performance, and service. This unique scholarship promotes academic excellence, fosters unity, and provides leadership & service opportunities.
